All regalia will be distributed on the second level of the Penn Bookstore near the textbook department. You will have the opportunity to meet with staff members regarding any questions, such as ensuring you are selecting the correct fit. Other grad related products and special promotions will also be available during that week.

Custom Regalia

Custom Doctoral Regalia differs from the traditional regalia typically worn at Penn's commencement. The red and blue robes are individually sized, and made of lightweight wool blended fabric with lined bell sleeves. The packet includes a hood, velvet tam and tassel. Custom Regalia is typically chosen by Doctoral candidates who plan to frequently participate in academic ceremonies requiring such unique attire in the future. Please keep in mind you are not required to purchase custom regalia and, with few exceptions, graduates most often choose standard Doctoral regalia.

Custom Doctoral regalia can only be obtained by ordering on line by April 1 and having it shipped directly.
